The Backyard Buddies hear a story from Mount Kinabalu in Sabah.

Aunt Meemee takes her nephew and niece, Ants Mu and Mulu (Lu, for short), to visit Mount Kinabalu with friends from their home in Sabah, not far from the sea.

The ants, and the Backyard Buddies who listen to the story, learn that our size or shape or status does not prevent us from making a difference wherever we are.

The Backyard Buddies

Dear children,
You can meet the following friends and more, in stories of the Backyard Buddies.

- Uncle Mango Tree*
- Mr Pap, the Papaya Tree*
- Young Curryleaf Tree*
- Miss Lily*
- Squeal and Speed, the two tree shrews*
- Magpie Robin, the inveterate traveller*
- Mrs Yellow-vented Bulbul*

The three frequent visitors to the backyard who are close friends :
Happy the Hippo, the foreigner from Africa, now residing in the Wetlands,
Tipparella, the tapir
and Rum Tee Tum, the rhino from the Endau-Rompin jungle.

Aunt Luvey lives in the house, but she knows nothing of the exciting things that happen in the backyard of her home.
I know you will enjoy getting to know them.
